

SECRETARY OF STATE W. J. BRYAN RESIGNS

DISAGREES WITH PRESIDENT
OVER POLICY TOWARD GERMANYRESIGNATION IS ACCEPTED AND CABINET APPROVES
RESPONSE TO GERMAN REPLY

Dramatic End of Official Relation of Bryan With Wilson Causes Sensation In Capital—Diplomatists Interpret Various Its Effect on Delicate Situation—Real Disagreement Dates Back to Cabinet Meeting When the Note of May 13, Following the Sinking of the Lusitania, Was Drafted.

WASHINGTON, June 8.—William Jennings Bryan, three times Democratic candidate for the presidency of the United States and author of nearly thirty peace treaties with the principal nations of the world, resigned today as secretary of state as a dramatic sequel to his disagreement with President Wilson over the government's policy toward Germany.

Will Cable Note Today.
The resignation was accepted by the president. The cabinet then approved the response which had been prepared to the German reply to the Lusitania note. Acting Secretary Robert Lansing will sign the document and tomorrow it will be cabled to Berlin. Secretary Bryan will return to private life tomorrow, when his resignation takes effect. It was learned that he intends to continue his political support of the president.

Rather than sign the document which he believed might possibly draw the United States into war, Mr. Bryan submitted his resignation in a letter declaring that "the issue involved is of such moment that to remain a member of the cabinet would be to the cause which is nearest my heart, namely, the prevention of war."

The president accepted the resignation in a letter of regret tinged with deep personal feeling of affection. The letters constituting the official announcement of Mr. Bryan's departure from the cabinet to private life, were made public at the white house at six o'clock tonight.

Causes Sensation in Capital.
Dramatically the official relation of Mr. Bryan with the administration of the man whose nomination he assisted so materially in bringing about at the Baltimore convention in 1912, came to an end. It caused a sensation in the national capital scarcely paralleled in recent years.

Ambassadors, ministers and diplomatists from foreign lands, officials of every rank and station, heard the news as it was flashed by newspaper extras tonight. They interpreted variously its effect on the delicate situation that had arisen between Germany and the United States. The resignation of the staunchest advocate of peace in the president's official family spread broadcast the belief that the policy of the United States as definitely determined upon would assert and defend the rights of the United States in any eventuality that might arise.

News Leaks Out and Is Confirmed.
Originally it was the intention of the president and Mr. Bryan to have the announcement of the resignation made simultaneously with the dispatch of the note to Germany, but when Mr. Bryan did not attend the cabinet meeting today until President Wilson sent for him, rumors that the president had been unable to bring the secretary or state to his point of view filled the air. Finally, shortly before six o'clock, the news leaked out and was confirmed.

Just when the subject was first broached between the president and Mr. Bryan is not known definitely, but the fact that Mr. Bryan would resign was known in small circles of officials as early as last Sunday. When the principles on which the note to Germany should be based were discussed at the cabinet meeting of Friday, Mr. Bryan found that he could not reconcile his own position with that of the administration. Work on the note went forward, however, Mr. Bryan keeping his secret as did other officials, awaiting the hour when the communication would be ready to be cabled. Today the cabinet assembled for a final reading of the note. Mr. Bryan was absent. He declined to receive newspaper men or callers and sent out word that he had been delayed on account of important business. At the white house no word as to the reasons for his failure to appear at the meeting were given, but after the cabinet had been discussing the note for an hour, Mr. Bryan arrived, telling the newspapermen at the white house that he regretted being late.

SECRETARY BRYAN'S LETTER OF RESIGNATION.

"My Dear Mr. President:

"It is with sincere regret that I have reached the conclusion that I should return to you the commission of secretary of state which you honored me at the beginning of your administration. "Obedient to your sense of duty and actuated by the highest motives you have prepared for transmission to the German government a note in which I cannot join without violating what I deem to be an obligation to my country and the issue involved is of such moment that to remain a member of the cabinet would be to the cause which is nearest my heart, namely, the prevention of war."

"I therefore respectfully tender my resignation to take effect when the note is sent, unless you prefer an earlier hour. Alike desirous of reaching a peaceful solution of the problems arising out of the use of submarines against merchantmen, we find ourselves differing irreconcilably as to the methods which should be employed."

"It falls to your lot to speak officially for the nation; I consider it to be none the less my duty to endeavor as a private citizen to promote the end which you have in view by means which you do not feel at liberty to use."

"In severing the intimate and pleasant relations which have existed between us during the past two years, permit me to acknowledge the profound satisfaction which it has given me to be associated with you in the important work which has come before the state department and to thank you for the courtesies extended."

"With the heartiest good wishes for your personal welfare and for the success of your administration, I am, my dear Mr. President, Very Truly Yours, (Signed) William J. Bryan.

"Washington, June 8th, 1915."

THE PRESIDENT'S LETTER TO MR. BRYAN

"My Dear Mr. Bryan:

"I accept your resignation only because you insist upon its acceptance; and I accept it with much more than deep regret with a feeling of personal sorrow. Our two years of close association have been very delightful to me. Our judgments have accorded in practically every matter of official duty and of public policy until now; your support of the work and purposes of the administration has been generous and loyal beyond praise. Your devotion to the duties of your great office and your eagerness to take advantage of every great opportunity for service it offered has been an example to the rest of us, you have earned our affectionate admiration and friendship. Even now we are not separated in the object we seek but only in the method by which we seek it."

"It is for these reasons my feeling about your retirement from the secretaryship of state goes so much deeper than regret. I sincerely deplore it. Our objects are the same and we ought to pursue them together. I yield to your desire only because I must and wish to bid you God speed in the parting. We shall continue to work for the same causes even when we do not work in the same way."

"With affectionate regard, sincerely yours," Woodrow Wilson.

Entertains Seven Colleagues.

It was learned tonight that with the knowledge that his resignation had already been accepted by the president, Mr. Bryan felt it would be indecorous to attend today's session unless his presence was desired by the president. When Mr. Wilson telephoned an invitation, the secretary hurried to the White House, his face somewhat drawn and pale. When the cabinet adjourned shortly after 1 o'clock Mr. Bryan entered, attended seven of his colleagues, all who could attend, at luncheon at the University club. The luncheon was in the nature of a farewell.

Dates Back to May 13.

The real disagreement dates back to the famous session of the cabinet when the note of May 13, following the sinking of the Lusitania was drafted, informing Germany that the United States would not omit "any word or any act" to protect its rights. At that time Mr. Bryan made a speech counseling peaceful measures and cautious action. He gave his consent to signing the note only after it was tentatively arranged that a statement at the White House should be issued and transmitted to the German government announcing that inasmuch as Germany had accepted the principle of the peace treaties negotiated between the United States and other countries, differences between the two nations might be adjusted by a commission of investigation. Opposition to this course was most vehement in some cabinet quarters and the president, after considering at length Mr. Bryan's suggestion, finally disapproved it at the hour the note was sent. Some cabinet officers argued that such an appendix to the note of May 13 would be construed abroad as a weakening of American position and their counsel prevailed.

Since then the official relations of Mr. Bryan with the president and the other cabinet officers have been somewhat strained, although the closest personal friendship has been maintained. Officials of the administration were unanimous tonight in their expressions of personal regret.

Secretary Tumulty issued a statement to that effect and the president reflected the same sentiment in his letter. Admiration and praise for the courageous manner in which Mr. Bryan had fought for and held to his convictions were expressed by officials on every side, including those who had been most vigorous in their opposition to his policies. The strong personal attachment of the president and Mr. Bryan has long been noticeable in their every day conferences. Even today, as they met in the cabinet room, their greeting was one of affection and regard.

Offered to Resign Before.

It became known only tonight that twice before in the two years and three months of his term, Mr. Bryan had offered to resign so as to save the president from embarrassment, and each time the president refused to accept the resignation. Throughout the constant newspaper bombardment of Mr. Bryan for his views on peace, his advocacy of prohibition and his speeches on the Chautauqua, the president has stood by the secretary, resenting criticism of him.

In domestic affairs the two men who were at the helm of the Democratic party in its first ascendancy into power in sixteen years co-operated most harmoniously. Often Mr. Bryan yielded some of his own views, as on the currency bill, and used his influence to assist the president's program in congress. It was not surprising, therefore, to officials and friends of the president and Mr. Bryan to learn tonight that the latter continued undaunted to his support of the president politically, although he could not remain in the cabinet and give him official help.

War News Summarized

Although there has been heavy fighting at various points along the western line, it is still in the east that the great conflict continues. Here, in the Galician sector, the Austro-Germans are keeping up their drive of the Russians eastward. Advancing from Przemyśl the German General Von Linsingen's forces have reached Lubaczow, which lies forty miles northeast of the captured Austrian fortress, while other Teuton armies have made additional advances south of the Dniester and along the Pruth.

As to the fighting on the western line, Paris and Berlin in their official statements are a variance. Only slight gains, however are claimed by either combatant. Positions captured from the Germans in the region of Notre Dame de Lorette have been consolidated, additional houses occupied by the Germans at Neuville St. Vaast have been captured and a gain along a front of 1,200 meters has been made to the south of Hebuterne, according to Paris.

Berlin asserts that an allied attack on the southern slope of the Lorette hills failed; that another offensive south of Neuville was checked by German artillery and that in the region east of Hebuterne the fighting continues. In addition the Germans say that to the northwest of Berry-Aux-Bac the allies suffered heavy loss in an unsuccessful attempt to recapture the position which they lost to the Germans last May.

There is little known of the situation along the Austro-Italian frontier. Vienna, in reporting the repulse with heavy losses of isolated attacks by the Italians near Gradison and Grado, says that the Italians are apparently preparing for a general attack along the Isonzo river.

Aircraft have been unusually active. An Austrian aeroplane has attacked and destroyed an Italian dirigible airship and another Austrian heavier-than-air machine has dropped bombs on Venice, on a balloon shed at Marano, near Venice, and on an Italian torpedo boat destroyer.

Sir John French, the British commander-in-chief, reports that the British have brought down two German aeroplanes on the western line, while Berlin asserts that the Germans have shot down an allied aircraft near Berry-Aux-Bac.

on a matter of principle which affected his entire philosophy of life. Will Make Statement Today.

Secretary Bryan said at his home when told of the formal announcement of his resignation: "In view of the announcement of my resignation I will say that letters being made public herewith state my reasons, but I will have a more complete statement that will be given out when the American reply to the German note is sent, which will probably be tomorrow."

"My resignation takes effect as soon as the note has been forwarded."

Mr. Bryan added that he probably would remain in Washington for awhile.

Wilson Shows Deep Feeling.

Washington, June 8.—President Wilson, by his every word and act today, showed his deep feeling over Secretary Bryan's decision to resign from the cabinet. He accepted the resignation with the greatest reluctance and only after he had become firmly convinced that he and the secretary were unalterably apart on the kind of note to be sent to Germany.

Ever since last Friday, when he began to feel that his views and those of Mr. Bryan could not be reconciled, the president has made no secret of his sorrow to his closest advisers. Sunday he called at the home of Secretary Tumulty to discuss the situation. Since then he has seen Secretary Bryan several times and has done his utmost to win him over to his point of view. During a conference the two had at the white house yesterday, however, it became finally evident that Mr. Bryan would leave the cabinet.

President Looks Careworn.

Not wishing to be questioned about the situation, the president directed Secretary Tumulty to cancel his regular Tuesday conference with newspaper men this morning, but later he rescinded the order and saw them. At the conference he looked careworn and his replies to questions were quick and sharp. Just before the cabinet meeting he saw Postmaster General Burleson for a short time.

Mr. Bryan's resignation, it is known, was discussed thoroughly at the cabinet meeting and final efforts were made to get him to reconsider his resignation. The president again spoke his deep regret when Mr. Bryan told him he could not remain in the official family and other cabinet members joined in the expressions of their chief.

For several days Mr. Wilson has been suffering from violent headaches and Dr. Grayson, his phys-

AUSTRO-GERMANS
PUSH RUSS BACK

Big Battle in Galicia Has Not Reached A Decision

FRENCH GAIN GROUND

Allies Claim Successes North of Arras and to Have Repulsed Attacks North of the Aisne

SINK THREE NORWEGIAN SHIPS

LONDON, June 8.—The big battle in Galicia has not yet reached a decision. The Austro-Germans, having crossed the Dniester south of Lemberg, have assumed the offensive further to the south and according to the Austrian official report have succeeded in pushing the Russians back between Koimora and Kalusz in eastern Galicia. This operation was necessary before the Teutonic allies continued their advance toward Lemberg as the Russian attacks in the region of Kolomea were beginning to look dangerous, after the Russians had, as reported from Petrograd last week, inflicted a rather severe defeat on the Austrians in this district.

British and Russian military opinion is that the Austro-Germans after their big effort which regained for them the greater part of Galicia, have about exhausted themselves and the view is expressed that they will soon have to secure and fortify a line from which they can withstand the Russian counter offensive which has already made itself felt on the lower San.

French Gain Ground.

If the Russian positions were really dangerous, these authorities say the allies would long ago have taken the offensive in the west to relieve the pressure on the eastern front. It is true that the French have been attacking at a number of points between Rheims and the district north of Arras and have in some cases been successful in gaining ground but the British are remaining quiet and it can hardly be said that a general offensive in the west has begun. The French are considered to have been very successful in what they have undertaken. North of Arras they have gained additional ground and north of the Aisne have repulsed four German counter-attacks and extended their previous gains.

On the other hand, the Germans claim to have repulsed some of the French attacks north of Arras and to the north of Soissons, the scene of the Germans last important victory in the west. The British report all quiet on their front, but the Zepplin brought down yesterday by Sub-Lieutenant Warford for which he today was awarded the Victoria Cross, they claim to have added two German aeroplanes as an offset to the destruction, reported by the Germans, of an allied aeroplane near Douai.

Censorship Screens Operations.

The operations on the Italo-Austrian frontiers are pretty well screened by the censorship. There are indications, however, that a big battle is imminent if it has not already begun, along the Isonzo river, where the Italians apparently have decided to launch their principal attack. The Italian cavalry has all crossed the river at one point, and it was reported from Geneva today, although there is no confirmation, that they have pierced the Austrian line.

There also are reports that the allies have again taken the offensive on the Gallipoli peninsula and have decisively defeated the Turks, but this likewise lacks confirmation. German submarines continue their activities. Among their latest victims were three Norwegian vessels, the steamers Trudvang and Glittertind, with iron ore and lumber, respectively, for British ports, and the bark Superb, with grain from South America for Queenstown.

Others sunk were the Belgian Steamer Metenier, with the loss of 17 lives and the trawler Pentland. Roumania, according to a German report, has declined the first offer of the entente allies to join them and Bulgaria, in agreement with Roumania, is said to be willing to take any action that country decides upon.

TO TAKE TRIP WEST.

Miss Anna Garvin of 131 West Chambers street, leaves Thursday night over the Wabash for Chicago, then to Springfield, where she is to attend the wedding of a friend. From Springfield she will be a member of a party of five, who will start for San Francisco to attend the exposition. They expect to be home by July 19th.

RECEIVE CONFLICTING
REPORTS OF FIGHTING

SILLIMAN STATES OBREGON CLAIMS "APPEAR TO BE CONFIRMED"

Villa Agency Asserts Northern Leader Has Lost No Engagements Since Engagement Began a Week Ago—Reception of Warning Indicates Favorable Reply.

Washington, June 8.—Conflicting reports of results of prolonged fighting between Carranza and Villa forces at Leon, central Mexico, were received today in Washington. Consul Silliman at Vera Cruz informed the state department that reports of a victory by Obregon, the Carranza military leader, over Villa forces "appeared to be confirmed." Dispatches received from the Villa front at Leon by his agency here tonight, however, asserted that he had lost no engagements and that none of their troop trains, artillery or supplies had been captured since the beginning of the engagement one week ago. No additional word has been received from Consul Silliman and nothing came from Consul Agent Carothers, with Villa, on the outcome of the Leon battle on which hangs the immediate military mastery of central Mexico.

Captures 2,500 Men.
The dispatches from the Villa front said the northern leaders' troops had captured 2,500 men and a large quantity of equipment when they drove Carranza soldiers from Leon last Thursday. It was admitted that Carranza troops later took city which, the dispatches asserted, was of no strategic importance.

The dispatches added that after receipt of President Wilson's communication Villa had proposed an armistice and retired his forces but that Obregon had pressed on, compelling him to continue the fight.

No replies had been received to President Wilson's warning to the Mexican factional leaders, but Consul Silliman had reported, officials said today, that Carranza's reception of the statement indicated a favorable reply, while Carothers sent a similar report on Villa's probable attitude.

No Word From Mexico City.

No word came from Mexico City tonight to indicate that the special train which was to carry about three hundred foreigners on the first leg of their journey to Vera Cruz had started. Officials were very hopeful however, that the party would reach Vera Cruz on Thursday when the transport Buford is due from Galveston. About ninety Americans are in the party.

Messages received at the British embassy confirming state department advice of the killing of one British subject and the wounding of four others in the capture of Tuxpam by Villa forces, were understood to have moved the English officials here and in Mexico to renewed efforts to remove the nationals from danger zones, if not from the republic.

CHILDREN LEAVE TOMORROW.

The pupils of the state school for the Deaf will depart tomorrow. A special train will leave over the Alton at 4:30 o'clock. The teachers who will accompany them are as follows:

TO GIVE PLAY.

The pupils of the Murrayville school expected to give their play, "Patsy From Dakota," tonight in the Olinger opera house at Franklin. If it is rainy the play will be called off.

GIVEN K. OF P. DEGREE.

Jacksonville lodge No. 152, Knights of Pythias, conferred the rank of Page on Wallace E. Spink at a meeting held Tuesday night.

HOUSE DEFEATS
HOME RULE BILL

Rep. Curran Gives Notice He Will Move a Re-Consideration Today

CONFIRM APPOINTMENTS

Senate Adopts Smith Resolution Re-Creating the Illinois Centennial Commission

THANK ALTON ENGINE CREW

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 8.—The Chicago home rule bill was defeated in the house today largely through the efforts of downstate members. The vote was 71 to 56 in favor of the measure. 77 votes being required to pass it. Representative Thomas Curran of Chicago changed his vote from "yes" to "no" just before the result was announced and gave notice that he will move a reconsideration tomorrow.

Friends of the bill claimed that several members who would have voted for it were absent today but that they would be here tomorrow and that it then would be passed.

Mayor William Hale Thompson and 29 members of the Chicago city council, who came to Springfield, especially to urge the bill, occupied seats on the speakers platform while the vote was being taken.

Senate Confirms Appointments.

The senate went into executive session this afternoon and confirmed executive appointments laid before it on June 3rd. Senator Latham's joint resolution calling upon the department of justice to report what information has been obtained regarding the state's rights in submerged and overflow lands along the navigable waters of the state was adopted.

Senator Smith offered a resolution recreating the Illinois Centennial commission created two years ago in which the three members of the University of Illinois faculty and two from the Illinois State Historical society were renamed, but providing that five present members of the senate and five present members of the house be named to complete the commission. The rules were suspended and the resolution adopted by viva voce vote.

Bills Passed by Senate.

Following are some of the bills passed by the senate:

Appropriating $75,000 to reimburse owners of livestock for damages suffered as a result of quarantine during the recent epidemic of foot and mouth disease.

Making appropriations for the state penal institutions for the next two years as follows: Northern Illinois penitentiary $702,327; southern prison $416,878.92; state reformatory $487,770.

Appropriating $25,000 for the erection of a monument for Ulysses S. Grant, to be erected on the capitol grounds.

Making an emergency appropriation of $200,000 to be used for the eradication of any epidemic among livestock.

Creating a state board of moving pictures censors under the supervision of the secretary of state. The normal school appropriation bill was called in the senate. As it was received the bill appropriated $1,941,499.12 for the five state normal schools. Items were added to the bill, and it was advanced to third reading.

Thank Alton Engine Crew.
Members of the lower house of legislature, many of whom were on the Chicago & Alton train which was wrecked last night near Willow Springs, passed a resolution today extending the thanks of the house to the engineer and fireman of the train for having averted a more serious wreck by their presence of mind.

W. C. Nelson was the engineer and W. A. Jones the fireman. Both live in Bloomington.

The house liberal committee tonight voted to report out with the recommendation that it pass the Trandell bill providing that when any city or township votes to become anti-saloon territory all persons suffering property damage or other financial loss as a result of such action shall be compensated by such city or township to the amount of the actual damage sustained. The committee vote was unanimous.

ATTACHMENT SUIT.
An attachment suit was filed in the circuit court Tuesday by F. M. Coard directed against Sarah M. Jaques and involves a claim of about $125. Mr. Coard is represented by J. O. Priest.

The government crop report indicated that a record yield of wheat may be expected in the United States this year. A billion bushel crop is the estimate, the greatest in the history of the country. It is fortunate indeed that this country is likely to have for shipment abroad a surplus of 385,000,000 bushels, and with every prospect of the European war continuing, it is safe to predict that every bushel will be needed and command a good price. If crop prospects are fulfilled there should be no question about the prosperity of American farmers this year.

IN BEHALF OF THE TREES.

The communication in another column from Prof. Israel Smith of Illinois college brings to attention a vital matter, the care of the elms in this city. A well agent of the state entomologist has recently examined many elms here and finds that they have been damaged greatly by insects and that still further damage will be done unless some simple remedial measures are taken. The communication points out that a still worse disease, now common in the east, is likely to attack the trees later on and unless the proper steps are taken to check these tree diseases and for the replacement of dead or decayed trees, then it is safe to predict that in 25 to 30 years our streets will be as barren of foliage as a western plain.

Of course this condition is not going to happen, but there is a real danger that the number of our trees may be so lessened as to materially detract from the reputation of Jacksonville as a city of elms, one of the most beautiful in many states. Aside from the esthetic viewpoint, fewer trees would mean a commercial loss. Mayor Rodgers, in a recent council meeting, called attention to this same matter and certainly the time has arrived for some organized effort for tree replacement and preservation.

MR. BRYAN, PRIVATE CITIZEN.

Not for many a day has there been such a political sensation as that occasioned Tuesday by the announcement of the resignation of William J. Bryan as secretary of state. Differences with the president as to the policy to be followed in the affairs resulting from the sinking of the Lusitania are given as the cause of the resignation and its acceptance. All the details of these differences will not be made public until after the United States note to Germany has been dispatched, which will probably be today. Mr. Bryan has indicated that he will then be in position to make a statement throwing further light upon his action.

The former secretary's letter of resignation and the formal acceptance by President Wilson are couched in language which gives evidence of the deep seated friendship between the two men and make it appear that the differences which have arisen are matters of policy which it has been impossible to reconcile, notwithstanding the high esteem in which each one holds the other.

It seems that the differences which resulted in the resignation began at the time the note was formulated to be sent to Germany setting forth that the United States would take any measure necessary to enforce its demands. Mr. Bryan, it is said, has the feeling that the note to be dispatched now to Germany is so phrased that there is danger of the United States being forced into a position not consistent with the peace policy for which he has been a strenuous advocate. Seemingly all other cabinet members and the president have been in accord on this matter and Mr. Bryan, finding himself unable to alter his own views, took the only other course.

Mr. Bryan's career politically is without parallel. No other leader has been able to retain such a hold upon his party through so many defeats. Three times he has been the democratic nominee for the presidency and has each time gone down to defeat. The average presidential candidate once defeated sinks into political oblivion, but not so with Mr. Bryan. He continued the most imposing and influential figure in his party and his was the influence that nominated President Wilson at the Baltimore convention. It was not surprising that the president should offer to Mr. Bryan the most important post in his cabinet, but there was considerable surprise throughout the country when Bryan accepted the portfolio of state, for a great number of people believed that in taking it he lessened his power in his party vastly. Possibly the secretary came to the same conclusion, that he was a bigger man outside the cabinet than in it, and this may have influenced him somewhat in his determination to resign.

No matter how much one may differ with Mr. Bryan, there is much to admire about him and he can be properly credited with a vast amount of political acumen and a very marked fearlessness in advocating any principle that he believes right. He is radical in many ways, yet in justice it can be said that a goodly number of the principles he has advocated, once ranked as impossible, have later come into a great amount of favor. In many points his public career, starting somewhat humbly as it did in Jacksonville, has been nothing short of wonderful, and through all the years during which he has been subjected to most rigorous grilling of a public kind, no breath of criticism has been heard against his character or personal integrity. He has done much for clean morality. In statescraft he cannot be classed with John Hay or Elihu Root, yet William Jennings Bryan is a big American and sincerely patriotic.

Not until all facts are known concerning Mr. Bryan's resignation will his action be a proper subject for either approval or censure.

WOMAN'S BUILDING FOR ILLINOIS COLLEGE

PLANS INAUGURATED AT GAMMA DELTA MEETING.

Over $500 Subscribed at Love Feast of Society Held Last Night at the Colonial Inn—Interesting List of Toasts Given—Miss Cole Toastmistress.

The laying of a foundation for a new Woman's building for Illinois college was a feature of the first triennial banquet of the Gamma Delta society of Illinois college composed of young ladies. The banquet was held Tuesday night at Colonial Inn and over $500 was subscribed for the new edifice.

After the regular program of toasts had been given plans for the new building which had been talked over privately for several days by the members, was brought up by Mrs. Andrew Russell, who thought a good time to begin was now. Others who talked on the subject were Mrs. E. P. Kirby, Mrs. Sherman Leavitt, Miss Isabel S. Smith and Miss Ruth Collins, president of the society. Miss Collins in her remarks pointed out the great needs for such a building for Illinois college. "A fund for a Woman's building for Illinois college, inaugurated by Gamma Delta literary society June 8" was the reading of the headlines of the subscription list presented. Mrs. Andrew Russell started the ball to rolling by subscribing $100. In less than thirty minutes, the thirty-one guests present had contributed $525.

While nothing definite as yet has been outlined by the inaugurators of the new building it is to be an edifice worthy of the name and college with which it is associated. It will house the two women's literary societies, and the Y. W. C. A. There will also be a reading room, lounging room, assembly hall and in fact patterned after similar buildings of the large universities. It is needless to say that enthusiasm ran high and the society feels that they have begun a task which will redound to the honor and glory of Old Illinois.

The Banquet.

The banquet consisted of six courses, the tables being appropriately decorated in the spring flowers. Miss Stella Cole was introduced as toastmistress and filled the position in a manner befitting the occasion. The following responded to toasts:

"Les Petites Enfants"—Ruth Clippelchae.
"Our Former Love Feasts"—Annie Bellatti.
"Ingredients"—Irene Moore.
"Stitches"—Velva Dugger.
"When Knighthood Was in Flower"—Eleanor Capps.
"Peace"—Ruth Brown.
"War"—Ruth Collins.

Greeting were sent to the Philomathean society, the newly organized woman's literary society of the college. The committee who drew up the resolutions were Ruth Collins, Ruth Weygand and Miriam Akers.

The officers of the society are: President—Ruth Collins.
Vice president—Grace McLaughlin.
Secretary—Irene Moore.
Treasurer—Beulah Ennis.

STORM WROUGHT DAMAGE IN CHAPIN VILLAGE

Window Glass Shattered In Nearly Every Home.

The Journal's Chapin correspondent sends the following account of damage done in the town and vicinity by the recent storm:

Your correspondent was so frightened Monday morning and then so busy cleaning up the debris after the terrific hail storm that only a meagre report was sent you out beautiful little city was very badly damaged by the hail and wind. Only two houses as far as we have heard escaped damage, those of Greely Brown and Mrs. Lonie Nergenman. One merchant said 15,000 panes of glass would have to be replaced. Many roofs were badly broken. Among those who will have to shingle their houses are Frank Smith, Mrs. Bruner, H. C. Bridgman, C. C. Bridgman, Frank Blair, Dave Lewis and Miss Margaret Egan. The M. P. church and parsonage had all the windows broken on the north and west sides. One hundred and twenty-five panes of glass were broken at the high school building. The Christian church was not damaged much on account of the new screens which had just been put in. The large windows in the front of the H. Kossmeier jeweler store and O. H. Coultas' implement store were shattered. John Eilers new residence suffered badly. The merchants are doing a thriving business in window glass and putty. Many of our beautiful shade trees were blown down. William Fisher, northwest of town, reports 90 panes of glass broken and Charles Drake, 60; W. Woodward, later.

Who Will Manage Your Estate?

SOMEONE will have charge of your affairs after you are gone. You should name that person in a will; otherwise a court will appoint someone—perhaps one not familiar with your estate.

If you name an individual, he may die in the midst of administering your estate. If he does survive, he may be taken sick, move away or become overburdened with his own affairs.

If you do not provide for the settlement of your estate by will, it will be administered under laws made to fit every estate—it will have to be settled in a specified time. Your estate may require time to realize its full value—may require such administration as can only be had under your written authority given by a will.

Appoint this company executor of your will and trustee of your estate. It makes a business of handling estates, has the facilities for doing so, is always accessible, is permanent and safe. The cost is no more than would be paid an individual in like capacity.

LIQUOR CASE ON TRIAL

IN COUNTY COURT

Before Judge Thomson in the county court Tuesday Thomas Nichols was tried on the charge of selling liquor in anti-saloon territory.

The case was prosecuted by State's Attorney Tilton and Paul Samuels appeared in behalf of the defendant.

Nichols is the man arrested on the charge of selling liquor in a building just north of the opera house.

At the time of his arrest Chief of Police Davis had watched the place for some hours and had seen many men go in and out.

Then with other officers he raided the back room of the building where he arrested Nichols and found quite a large supply of beer and some whisky.

Nichols had a government license but insisted that he had taken it out in his name at the direction of someone else and that he did not know the significance of the document.

A jury heard the evidence and retired at 3 o'clock to consider their verdict.

At 11 o'clock the jury was asked by Judge Thomson if they thought an agreement could be reached.

The jury asked for further time for consideration. At an early hour this morning they were still out and it looks as though no decision will be reached.

BROUGHT BACK THE CAR.

A few days ago Mr. and Mrs. Fred Henderson and Mrs. Louis Maul, a sister of Mrs. Henderson, all started in Mrs. Henderson's new Interstate automobile for a visit with Mrs. J. R. Gudegill, sister of the ladies, in Fairfield, Iowa. The trip going was all right, but heavy rains prevented the return in the same way, so the party came back by train and Saturday Mr. Henderson and Mrs. Maul went after the car. Sunday they reached home, traveling 175 miles in the day. They found good roads and had a pleasant trip. Mr. Maul says he saw little wheat in Iowa and almost all along the way corn had a good start, but the wet weather had given the weeds a good start also and the corn was suffering for work. The best wheat they found this side the great river.

WIND SHATTERS TREE.

A Honey Locust tree which was standing on the lawn in the rear of the residence of Mr. and Mrs. S. Allen Fairbank, 905 Edgehill Road, was blown down in the wind storm which visited this locality shortly after midnight Sunday. The tree was valued on account of its beautiful foliage and for the shade it afforded. It was tall and slender and measured through its body about 60 inches. The tree was very old, as was evidenced from the base which had been divided into several pieces, and some of which had decayed and were wormeaten. Its sides were scarred by the electricity from the lightning which had struck it at various times. Who knows but it has been a shelter for some of the Kickapoo Indians who at an early day made their home in this locality and had their teepees on the banks of the Manauvalter creek, a couple of miles north of this city.

TREE AUTHORITY WARNS OF DANGERS FOR ELMS

Field Agent of State Entomologist Made Recent Inspection Visit in Jacksonville.

Last Friday afternoon at the request of Miss Isabel Smith, professor of biology at Illinois College, Mr. W. P. Flint, a field agent from the office of the State Entomologist, came to Jacksonville to look at the diseased trees, on our streets and particularly on the campus of Illinois college. As some of the ideas he gave are of general interest to Jacksonville citizens, this article is written, in the hope that by general cooperation we may preserve our beautiful trees. Mr. Flint said that he knew of no two streets in the state that had as handsome shade trees as West State street and West College avenue.

The first question was, of course, what is the matter with the elms and what can we do for them?

The main insect that is eating the leaves, making the leaves look shot through with holes, is the spring canker worm (Palaecrita vernata). The larva of this pest, the worm, is the slender dark greenish-olive or black caterpillar about three quarters of an inch to one inch long, with only one pair of legs in front with a whitish stripe on each side and narrow, pale lines down the back. Fortunately their destruction for this season is past. You may have seen them dangling from the leaves on a white thread which they spin from their bodies. If they fall on you they creep along, showing that they are measuring worms. These worms, after feeding on the leaves during the spring go into the ground where they pupate until the next spring. When the first warm days come they leave the chrysalis in which they have spent the winter and crawling out of the ground begin their annual spring feast. The males are winged, brownish-gray moths, but fortunately the females are wingless and at the first glance look much more like a spider than a moth. However the bodies are much more slender, they have three pairs of legs, are about one-third of an inch long, are of a dull brown or grayish color with a dark brown strip down the middle of the back. Since the female is wingless, she can get to the upper part of the tree only by climbing the trunk. So in Jacksonville we shall be inexcusable if every elm and hackberry trunk is not banded next spring with a ring of tangle-foot for these are the trees she attacks. Let her get to the limbs and lay her eggs here, and we shall have an epidemic from which it will be difficult to save our trees. At least that is Mr. Flint's opinion, judging from the inroads the canker worm has made this spring. This is the pest which some years ago was so serious in Jacksonville.

An elm tree on the north side of Academy Hall had occasioned much anxiety. It put out a fine crop of leaves this spring. But a few weeks ago it began to drop them in great numbers. Examination of those leaves showed that they were in most cases yellowed, showing lack of vitality, and that the break of the stem was perfectly smooth under a Coddington lens, showing that they had grown off as they do in autumn rather than had been eaten off by some insect. No insect could be found. This was Mr. Flint's diagnosis. Elms on the rich soils of Illinois mature and reach a condition of old age much sooner than in New England. There an elm may live for several hundred years; here it will perhaps live not more than one hundred years. Perhaps this tree was founded, eighty-five years ago. The condition of the leaf shows a lack of vitality. In other places e. g. Carbondale, the roots of trees in this condition have been examined. The small rootlets have almost all perished. After a few years of this dropping of leaves the tree becomes bare and dies. We have on the campus of Illinois college some trees in this half bare condition.

What can be done? Very little. It is really old age. As an old person is helped by nourishing food and care so these trees may be. The ground should be worked about the roots and tree water will help them and probably many now show this condition because of the dry seasons of the past few years. But the great lesson these trees teach, is that many new trees ought to be planted in Jacksonville now. Unless some of the diseased trees are taken out and the new trees put in their places 1940 will find the streets of our beautiful city as bare of trees as they now are crowded with them. We should not spare diseased trees to a large extent. Remove and plant a young tree.

Mr. Flint does not advise the planting of elms as now elm pests are so serious. He says reports to the contrary, that, so far, the elm leaf beetle has not reached Illinois. But it is very serious in the east—our states and will probably reach us in time. Instead he advises the planting of hard maples, which are comparatively free from pests.

This spring I presume most of the people of our city noticed short, fleshy, green worms falling from the elm trees and green leaves lying on the ground, cut off by them. This devastation occurred the latter part of April. The color of the worms was a bright apple green. The older worms were much duller. Fortunately they feed but a short time and within one week after they appeared the writer had difficulty in finding any.

Dr. Alexander MacGillivray is growing cultures of these worms in Urbana and hopes to be able to tell us more about their habits. The larva of a saw fly (Macroxylella) and is seldom found in the numbers that we had it here this spring. However it is a minor factor in our elm troubles. Also, as a minor factor there is the leaf skeletonizer and June bug. But they are so unimportant that they may be omitted in the reckoning.

I think this is enough for one time and gives us information pressing needed now. If I am granted space, I shall be glad to speak of a few other forest tree diseases, which are not so wide spread but which are in our city.

When the proper time comes next spring I think the Journal will permit me to remind the people of Jacksonville to band their trees with tangle-foot.

AFTER SUFFERING TWO LONG YEARS

Mrs. Aselin Was Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

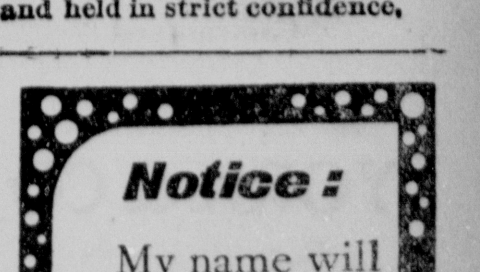

Minneapolis, Minn.—“After my little one was born I was sick with pains in my sides which the doctors said were caused by inflammation. I suffered a great deal every month and grew very thin. I was under the doctor's care for two long years without any benefit. Finally after repeated suggestions to try it we got Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. After taking the third bottle of the Compound I was able to do my housework and today I am strong and healthy again. I will answer letters if anyone wishes to know about my case.”—Mrs. JOSEPH ASELIN, 628 Monroe St., N. E., Minneapolis, Minn.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotics or harmful drugs, and today holds the record of being the most successful remedy we know for woman's ills. If you need such a medicine why don't you try it?

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

MARKET LETTERS

CHICAGO MARKETS.
Union Stock Yards Chicago, June 7, 915. Oliver S. Green with Walter Bros., Union Stock Yards, Chicago, Ill., reports estimate receipts for Monday June 7:
16,000 cattle.
43,000 hogs.
12,000 sheep.
Early the estimated run was about 18,000 and the market had a slow opening, but when it was cut to below 17,000 the market became more active and the bulk sold at fire prices. The general market was strong to 10c higher than last week's close but not quite up to the opening prices one week ago. Best handy weights and good killers were a shade over one week ago. Prime heavy cattle are scarce and 34, choice 1500 bidlocks in the free area sold at 9.10, with a few fancy yearlings at 9.50, 20 averaging 1175 at 9.30. A fairly good number of good weights up to 1625 sold from 9 to 9.10. Grassy and half fat cattle were weak. Yearlings, heifers and steers strong, canners and cutters steady. Bulls were firm, medium to firm light bulls not well fattened were weak to lower. Calves held steady. Bulk of the cattle from medium to good $8.50 to $8.85, with a liberal number at 8.90 and above. Fat cows 3.75 to 7.65. Heifers 5 to 8.25, although prime heifers and steers sold up to 9.10. Common heavy calves to good vealers, 4.50 to 9.50. Choice to prime vealers, 9.75 to 10c.
Early the hog run was aced 28,000, later raised to 34,000 and the market was steady to 5c lower. Top for lights 7.75. Mixed hogs 7.40 to 7.75. Medium butchers 7.50 to 7.60. Poor to good heavy hogs 7.05 to 7.30. Light weights 7.45 to 7.65. Pigs and through outs 2 to 7.40.
Shorn lambs were generally 25c lower than the close of last week. Spring lambs 25 to 35 and some cases 50c lower. Aged sheep steady to strong, on the late market some were 25c higher. Shorn Colorado in the exposed area 10c with plain kinds 9.65. Other weights in the exposed section 10 to 10.15.
Shorn ewes choice to prime, 5.60 to 6. Shorn ewes, common to good, 5 to 5.40. Fancy yearlings sold at 9.50.—Respectfully, Oliver S. Green.

KANSAS CITY MARKETS.
Kansas City Stock Yards, June 7.—All markets today reported more cattle than a week ago, the increase at the five western markets amounting to 10,000. Another bearish feature was the large per cent of native beef steers offered in connection with a fair supply from below the quarantine line. Chicago quoted prices 10 cents lower, and here, the best fed steers in practically all weights were steady, and plainer kinds weak to 10 cents lower. Most of the native steers sold at $8.10 to $8.50. In the quarantine division prices were 10 cents lower. Butcher cattle were steady to 10 cents lower, though a fairly active demand. Veal calves were steady. Few stockers and feeders were offered, and prices are firm. This is the beginning of the small runs of thin cattle, and the big movement will not be resumed until late summer. Most of the stockers and feeders are selling at $7.25 to $8.25.
Hog prices were quoted steady to 5 cents higher than Saturday. The top price was $7.75, paid by shippers, and the bulk of the hogs sold to packers at $7.50 to $7.70 or 5c higher than in Chicago. Receipts were moderate, the five western markets reporting about 700 head a week ago, and a year ago. Here, receipts were 8000.
The sheep market is firm with demand active. A supply of 8000 was absorbed readily. A three car high on sheep.

"MORNING GLANCES"

(By Gosh)

The Giants further humiliated the Cubs Tuesday by beating them 9 to 3. Lavender and Standridge allowed twelve hits.

McGraw is now using George Burns in the clean up position. He is making no mistake for Burns is probably the best hitter on the Giants at the present time and one of the best hitters in the old league.

Jimmy Archer after being in the background in the Cubs' lineup for the greater part of the season was in the game Tuesday. Jimmy combed a home run off of Marquard. Two of the mainstays on the Cubs in line batting line were easy for Marquard. Zimmerman and Saier did not get a safety.

Cincinnati threw a scare into the Champion Braves Tuesday by tying the score in the eighth. The Braves came back in the ninth and shoved a run over, winning the game.

Herzog had ten chances at short for the Reds and accepted them all without an error.

The Macks beat St. Louis 5 to 2. The game was loosely played. St. Louis having five errors and Philadelphia four. A total of nine errors in a major league game is something unusual.

The Eagles had expected to get Cy Rofke to pitch against Diverson on Sunday but Cy has writtend that he has signed up with Diverson so the Eagles will have to face his benders next Sunday.

It looks queer to see Barry batting in second place in the Athletics lineup. When Mack had Eddie Collins and Baker, Barry was well down in the order.

Rowland made a radical change in his batting order at Boston yesterday. The Sox won but not by hitting as the Red Sox outlth them but gave them the game on errors. Incidentally the White Sox stepped back into first place.

Ray Schalk is catching the best ball of his career for the White Sox now. There is hardly a question but that he is the best catcher in the American league this year.

Hoblitel poled three hits, one a homer, in Tuesday's game.

Cap Denney who has been playing with Ashland this year has come back home and will be at second in the Eagles lineup Sunday. With DeFrates, Wheeler and Denney the Eagles have three cracking good infielders.

Luders won a game for Philadelphia practically by himself yesterday. He made three hits, one of them a triple that brought in three of the Phillies five runs.

The Yanks pushed Detroit back into second place Tuesday by winning four to one. Caldwell held the heavy hitting Tigers to six hits and his team mates played errorless ball behind him.

After being defeated 3 to 1 for seven innings Brooklyn rallied in the eighth and scored three runs and won from Pittsburgh.

Baileley pitching for Bulring against Muscatine in the Central Association Tuesday struck out sixteen men.

load bunch of California spring lambs sold at $11.25 and plain Texas yearlings $8 with weathers $5.75 to $6. This market is relatively high on sheep.

MINISTER CAN PLOW.
A short time since Rev. W. E. Spoonst was visiting in the country with a man who was breaking sod with three horses and not succeeding first rate. The horses didn't go just right and the man was more or less bothered until finally the minister offered to try his hand. The farmer laughed right heartily at the idea, but the preacher put his hand to the plow and had no intention of jeopardizing his chances by looking back, so he went ahead. The ground was tough sod and not easy to plow, but he went several rounds with entire success and now has added another to the list of laurals he already wears.

Boy or Girl? Great Question!

This brings to many minds an old and tried family remedy—an external application known as "Mother's Friend." During the period of expectancy it is applied to the abdominal muscles and is designed to soothe the intricate network of nerves involved. In this manner it has such a splendid influence as to justify its use in all cases of coming motherhood. It has been generally recommended for years and years and those who have used it speak in highest praise of the immense relief it affords. Particularly do these knowing mothers speak of the absence of morning sickness, absence of strain on the ligaments and freedom from those many other distresses which are usually looked forward to with so much concern.

There is no question but what "Mother's Friend" has a marked tendency to relieve the mind and this of itself in addition to the physical relief has given it a very wide popularity among women.

It is absolutely safe to use, renders the skin pliable, is penetrating in its nature and is composed of those emollients best suited to thoroughly lubricate the nerves, muscles, tendons and ligaments involved.

You can obtain "Mother's Friend" at almost any drug store. The regular price is $1.00 a bottle.

It is prepared only by Bradford Regulator Co., 501 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. Avoid the many worthless substitutes. It should be remembered that what is said of "Mother's Friend" is the thought expressed by the thousands of women who have successfully used it and recommended it through two generations.

BILLION BUSHEL WHEAT CROP NOT IMPROBABLE

REPORT INDICATES GREATEST CROP EVER GROWN.

Federal Board Issues Forecast on Growing Winter and Spring Wheat Crops—Winter and Spring Wheat Acreage Shows an Increase of 11 Per Cent.

Washington, June 8. — A billion bushel wheat crop, the greatest ever grown in the world's history, is indicated for the coming harvest in today's forecast by the federal crop reporting board on the growing winter and spring wheat crops.

Should that enormous quantity be harvested the United States would have upwards of 385,000,000 bushels to supply the demands of the warring European nations, which are expected to increase rather than diminish. Domestic consumption this year probably will reach 535,000,000 bushels for food purposes and about 80,000,000 bushels for seedling.

Basing its forecast on the condition of the growing crops on June 1, the crop reporting board today estimated the final production of winter and spring wheat combined would be 950,000,000 bushels. The actual production, however, will be greater or less than the figures stated in proportion as conditions from June 1 to harvest time are better or worse than usual. A billion bushel harvest with good growing conditions is not improbable in view of the fact that in the record crop year of 1912 the prospects increased 87,000,000 bushels from June 1 to harvest.

Acreage Shows Big Increase.

Influenced by the prospective heavy European demands for grain, American farmers last fall sowed the largest area ever planted in this country to winter wheat, 40,69,000 acres, and this spring 199,248,000 acres were sown to spring wheat, exceeding last year's area by almost 2,000,000 acres. Winter and spring wheat areas combined show an increase of 11 per cent over last year's acreage. The wheat sown last fall came through the winter in splendid condition, but deteriorated during May. Spring wheat was somewhat hindered by cool and wet weather, but on June 1 showed a condition 1 per cent better than the average for the last ten years.

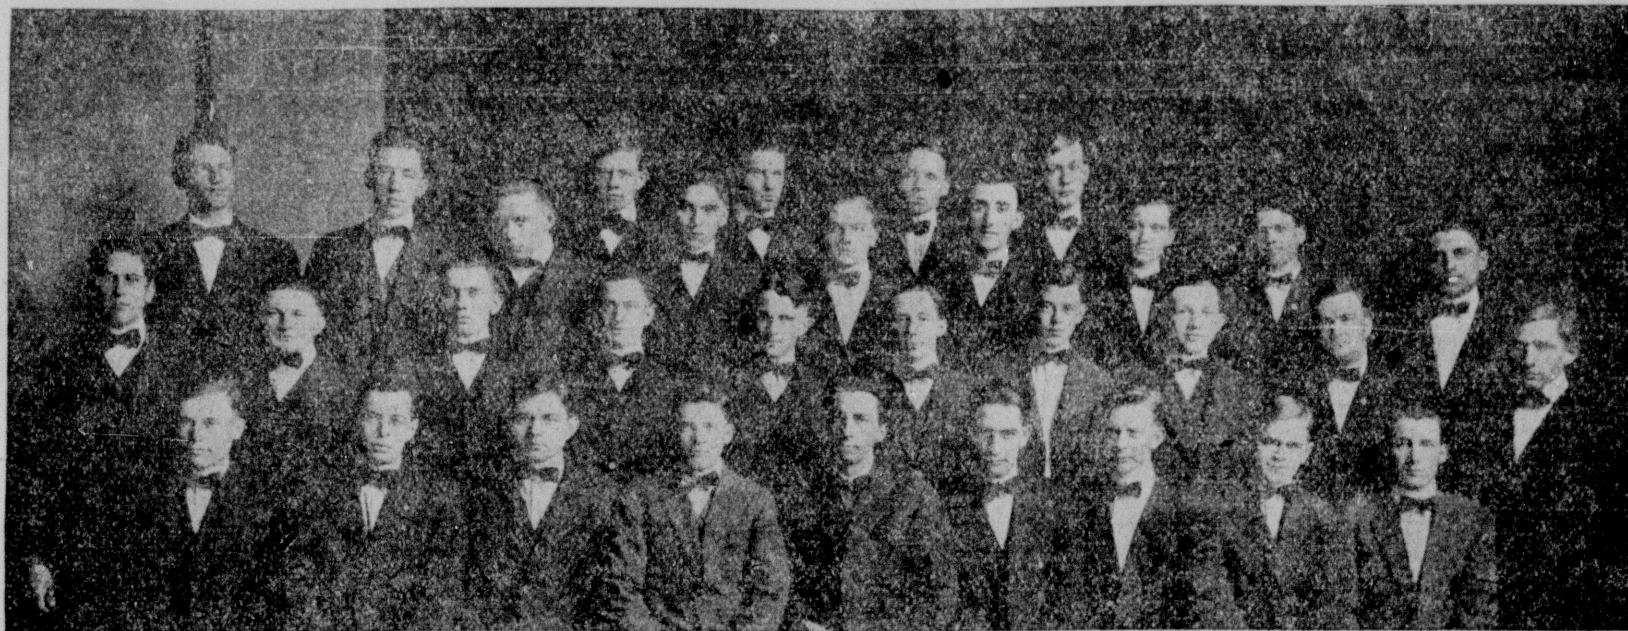

Winter wheat now being harvested in the southern sections of the country will yield 676,000,000 bushels, the crop reporting board estimates. That is 9,000,000 bushels less than harvested in last year's record crop.

Spring wheat prospects are placed at 274,000,000 bushels, or 86,000,000 bushels more than last year, and 29,000,000 less than 1913. This would be second in size for spring wheat, the record crop having been 330,348,000 bushels in 1912.

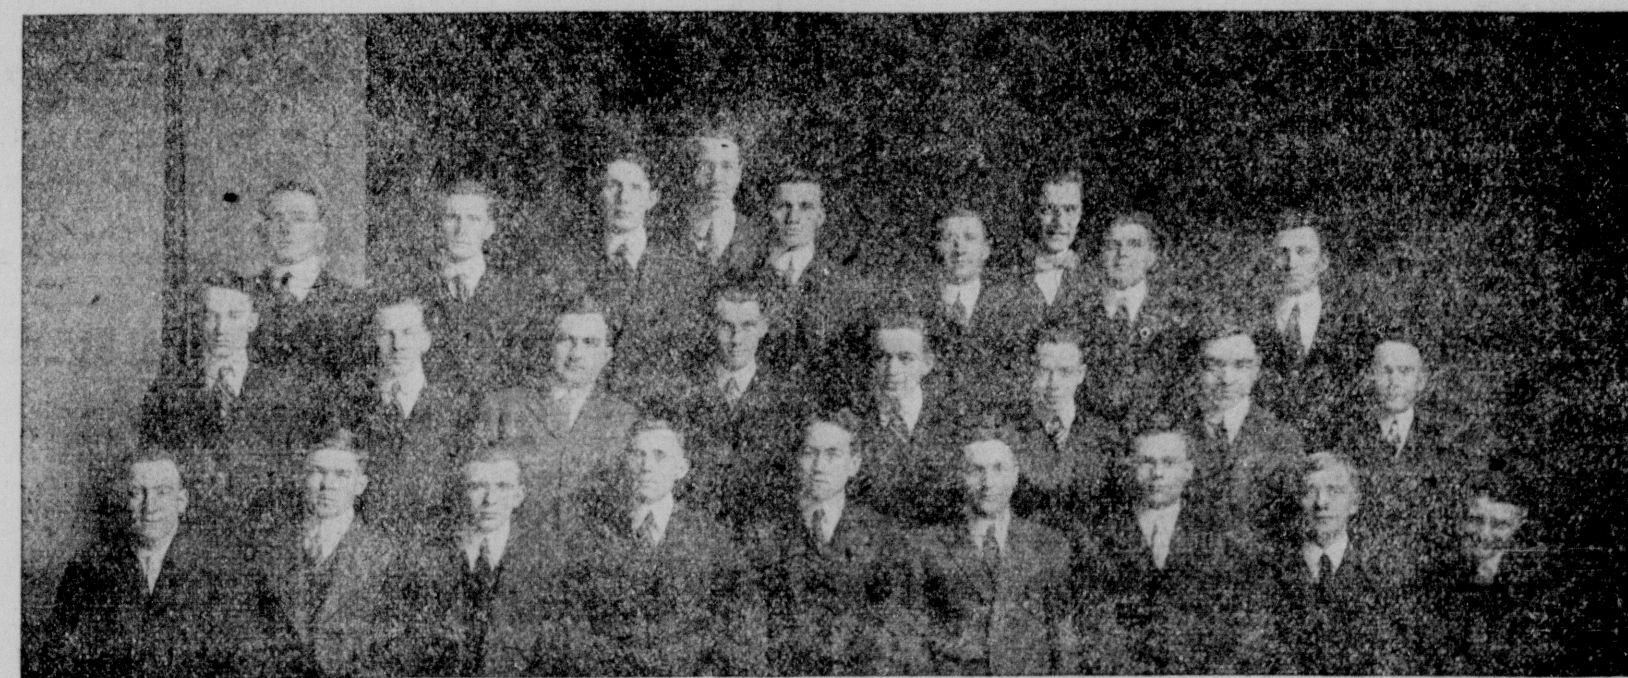

Details of the report by principal states, showing the June 1 and the ten year average condition and estimated production of winter wheat; the acreage June 1 and ten year average condition and estimated production of spring wheat and oats follow, (acreage and production in thousands; i. e., 000 omitted):

A STRANGER IN A STRANGE LAND.

C. Porter Johnson of St. Louis, who is here for the Illinois commencement, used to live in Chicago. This was along in 1891, and Mr. Johnson was at that time a state senator. He was only twenty-four years of age and looked very boyish.

A story is told of an experience Mr. Johnson had on a railroad train and the connection of the late Hon. William H. (Buck) Hinrichsen, with it. Mr. Hinrichsen was at that time a clerk in the house in Springfield.

Mr. Johnson boarded a train for Springfield and found that he had forgotten his transportation. He endeavored to explain the situation to the conductor. This individual looked with suspicion on Mr. Johnson on account of his youthful appearance. The conductor finally volunteered the information that Mr. Hinrichsen was in the smoking room of the sleeper and asked Mr. Johnson if he knew him. He replied in the affirmative and the two journeyed to the smoking room.

Now, everyone who knew "Buck"

Hinrichsen knows that he was quick witted and loved a joke. The conductor confronted Mr. Hinrichsen with Mr. Johnson and asked him if he knew him. Mr. Hinrichsen quickly took in the situation and looking Mr. Johnson over carefully said he had never seen him in his life. He kept up the deception for some time and it gave Mr. Johnson several uncomfortable minutes in which he began to doubt that he knew himself.

DRAWING PLANS.

C. W. Buckingham is working on the plans for the addition to the Franklin school building which was recently authorized by a vote of the people in that village. The plans are nearing completion and bids are to be asked at an early date. Mr. Buckingham is also drawing plans for a modern eight-room dwelling to be erected in Franklin for Dr. and Mrs. C. I. Glenn.

WILL PLAY RETURN GAME.

The Farmersville baseball team will play the Franklin team at Franklin next Sunday. Earlier in the season the Farmersville club suffered defeat at the hands of the Franklin players and are anxious for the coming opportunity to square the record.

SOAP IS BAD FOR THE HAIR

Soap should be used very sparingly, if at all, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is just ordinary mulitified coconut oil (which is pure and greaseless), is cheaper and better than soap or anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulitified coconut oil at any pharmacy, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.

SECRETARY OF STATE W. J. BRYAN RESIGNS

clan, insisted upon his making a round of the golf links this afternoon. It was while he was away from the white house that the definite reports that Mr. Bryan had resigned reached the public.

Lansing Becomes Secretary.
Washington, June 8. — Robert Lansing, successor to John Bass. Moore as counselor of the state department, becomes secretary of state tomorrow, when Secretary Bryan's resignation takes effect. He is a son-in-law of John W. Foster, secretary of state under President Harrison, a life long democrat and has been an international lawyer for many years.

While there is much gossip already as to President Wilson's probable selection for the secretaryship it is the president's plan to make no immediate appointment. It would not be surprising if he made no change in the present status of the department's personnel for two or three months. Secretary Franklin K. Lane of the interior department has been frequently mentioned as a possible successor to Secretary Bryan, but the belief exists that he will not be chosen on account of his Canadian birth and the fact that President Wilson would find difficulty in finding a man to take over Mr. Lane's important work on the Alaska railroad and other projects of the interior department. It is considered entirely probable that the president will make no shift in his cabinet at all, but will choose a new man to fill the vacancy.

May Retain Lansing.

In well informed quarters it is considered very likely that he will retain Mr. Lansing as secretary. To do so would require search for another counselor, a post most difficult to fill.

Mr. Lansing has prepared memoranda for practically all of the important notes that have gone to belligerent governments since the European war began and is looked upon not only as an expert in international law, but as a clear thinker and adviser. For many years he has served on boundary commissions and arbitration tribunals. He is a comparatively young man, well acquainted with all the government's policies, and has won the admiration of the president and Mr. Bryan by his loyalty to the secretary of state as his superior officer. On many occasions Mr. Lansing has submitted memoranda expressing views differing from those of Mr. Bryan, but he has tactfully avoided embarrassments.

Precipitates Debate in Senate.
Springfield, Ill., June 8. — Announcement of William Jennings Bryan's resignation as secretary of state precipitated a debate in the senate this afternoon. Speeches paying tribute to Mr. Bryan's character and ability and criticizing his resignation "in this time of stress and storm," held up the work of the senate for nearly an hour.

News of Mr. Bryan's resignation spread through the state house like fire. Lieutenant Governor Barratt O'Hara announced to the senate that Mr. Bryan had resigned.

"The president is to be congratulated," remarked Senator Curtis. "The senator from Jefferson will reply," said O'Hara, recognizing Senator Piercy.

"Mr. Bryan needs no defense," remarked Senator Piercy, taking up the gauntlet. "Twenty years ago he stood as the first apostle of real reform in this country. And so clean, so vigorous has been his life and his life work since that time that the whole world is now glad to do him homage."

Senator Dailey said: "I yield to no one in any great admiration of the many admirable qualities and lofty ideas of the secretary of state. But in this time of stress and storm I very deeply regret that a man of such towering ability, when his services are most required by the president and the nation, should find it fitting and proper to resign."

Gov. Dunne Makes Statement.
Springfield, Ill., June 8. — Governor Dunne tonight made the following statement regarding the resignation of Secretary of State Bryan:

"It is a matter of extreme regret that the two great men who have worked and thought and felt so harmoniously and successfully along the same lines for so many years, have been compelled to differ at such a critical time in the affairs of the nation.

"That both of them are acting from the deepest conviction and from the highest of motives cannot be doubted. The nature of the issue between them is not clearly disclosed in their letters. Until it is clearly understood further comment would be premature."

Taft Makes No Comment.
Hartford, Conn., June 8. — Former President Taft, who was here late today as a guest of the Press club of Hartford, when informed of Secretary Bryan's resignation, said that he had nothing to say for publication.

ON INSURANCE QUESTION.

The recent storm has resulted in animated discussion between property owners and insurance agents. Companies have thus far declined to pay losses resulting to crops or buildings from hail claiming that their storm contracts cover damage from wind or lightning and hail cannot be classed with either.

SOLD ROGGS ON CONTRACT.

PHI ALPHA LOVE FEAST ATTRACTED MANY OLD MEMBERS

Members of Society Gathered at Hall for Annual Laudation of the Organization—Earlier Days Recalled.

The seventieth last meeting or love feast of the Phi Alpha society of Illinois college took place last evening at the society hall, which has been enlarged and improved and the occasion was one in full keeping with the traditions of the organization, full of loyalty, enthusiasm and all that goes to make a grand fraternity and brotherhood. To give anything like a fair and complete report in reasonable space is impossible.

The members gathered at six and enjoyed a social time till a little after seven when they were invited to the club room which has recently been added and there sat down to a superb meal. Grace was said by Rev. Arthur Rider, now of Los Angeles and all enjoyed the good things prepared.

President Bracewell called the gathering to order and W. G. Goebel proposed the name of A. R. Gregory for honorary membership and he was unanimously chosen. The gentleman was unfortunately unable to be present and Mr. Goebel was instructed to notify him formally. President Bracewell spoke briefly congratulating the society over its financial condition and the handsome amount raised for the improvements costing $950 and all paid for. He then introduced as toastmaster of the occasion, Victor Nelson of Chicago. The gentleman performed the duties of the position most admirably, introducing the several speakers with witty remarks and putting all in a good humor.

Mr. Nelson is connected with the Northwestern Yeast Co., and remarked that it took the yeast to raise the dough and his yeast would make good bread for toasts. He remarked that it was a great disappointment not to have on hand Dr. Jayne, the first member of the society, but three cheers were given for the grand old man and a telegram ordered sent him expressing the regard of the society for him.

President Rammelkamp presented the welcome greetings of the college to all members present and past. It was in that hall he had first visited and there heard a speech remarkable for its rigid impartiality. He hoped the societies would always be true to the college and place their banner above all. J. R. Ward of Chicago told in an eloquent address of the grand possibilities which were before the society. R. M. Hockenbush sang a solo with Mr. Kritch as accompanist and was greeted with hearty applause and a rousing encore.

C. S. Rannels told of the glories of the class of 1879 and the honor it was to know men of those days. A new member, Hon. G. S. Montgomery, American consular agent at Edmonton, Canada, spoke eloquently of the honored men of the society. The Phi Alpha song was then sung and Judge Carl of Quincy gave a fine address.

The chair then announced Hon. Andrew Russell, next governor of Illinois and he was received with continued applause and spoke in a fine manner. President Bracewell paid a tribute to Mrs. Russell who had done much for the society and a vote of thanks was tendered her. Dean Cochran then gave a violin solo and was loudly encored. Judge Campbell of Bowling Green and formerly of St. Louis, Mo., spoke of the days gone by. He was of the class of 1872 and was treated with distinguished honor as was J. J. Bergen of Virginia, also an early member. Edward Clifford told of the glories of the old days; Samuel Baxter of East St. Louis spoke eloquently. John Mangner told of the prospects for the next year; Rev. Arthur Rider made an excellent speech; W. D. Wood paid an especial tribute to A. A. Paxson and W. G. Goebel who did so much for Phi Alpha; present with his son, spoke eloquently and S. W. Nichols was the last. The society adjourned with the Phi Alpha song and three rousing cheers.

CLASS DAY EXERCISES

AT ILLINOIS COLLEGE

Program Carried Out Tuesday on College Campus—Gifts for the Juniors.

The annual class day exercises at Illinois college yesterday were fully up to the usual high standard and were very pleasing to the audience gathered to enjoy them.

Ray Bracewell read the class poem which showed him quite a master of the fine art of verse writing. Arthur Petrie read the history and it was full of jokes and witty sayings which elicited much laughter from the audience.

The prophecy by Viggo Jensen was a fine production and caused much merriment. He imagined all sorts of careers for the members of the class and gave them each a fine send-off.

Brewer read the class will and the juniors will be decidedly richer by the many things left them by their immediate predecessors. The production made a lot of fun.

It remained for Earl Harmon to present the tokens to the juniors and the affair was a decided hit. To Edw. Alexander he gave a half loaf of bread as that gentleman was known to have a voracious appetite and would need all he could get. To Ernest Alford he gave a clock to help the young man get up in time as he was decidedly sleepy. To Miss Velma Dugger he donated a Ford automobile, in miniature, and advised her to make good use of it. To Miss Alice Gunn he handed a large mug in lieu of a stein as it was as near as he could come to the real thing. To Miss Beulah Ennis he gave a mask though it was so transparent it was no disguise to the one who wore it. Lucille Ellison and Roy Newberry were asked to receive a very strong cord. Earl Shafer was the happy recipient of a Japanese doll. Ray Berry had the good fortune to get a small meteorite. Walter Heath, Ruth Brown, Ellsworth Black and some others were recipients of an angel sitting on a casket. Thos. Mangner, Dixon, Lippe and others received a towel, soap and brush and were bidden to clean up. A minnow net was bestowed on Miss Judith Woods. To Arthur Gustafson was given a cythe with the injunction to use it. Harvey McLaughlin had what seemed to be a camera but on being opened a figure was thrown out. To Miss Julia Huff was given the apple of college life. Edw. Bullard received a tray and apron and was advised to join the waiters' union.

To reply was by Thomas Mangner and was witty and full of fun and elicited loud applause.

PLAN TO UNITE WOMEN'S ORGANIZATIONS OF COUNTY

Picnic Will be Held at Nichols Park Thursday With This Purpose in View.

Preparations have been completed by the women in charge for the picnic to be held at Nichols park Thursday morning. The time is set for 11 o'clock. It is the desire that the members of all the women's organizations in the county be present. Everyone is asked to bring dinner with them.

After dinner a program has been arranged which will be somewhat informal in character but of certain interest to all. Those to speak will be H. H. Vasconcellos, county superintendent of schools, Dr. Stanley Krebs who is here for the county teachers' institute, Miss Katherine Olmsted, Mrs. U. G. Woodman and Miss Annie Hinrichsen. Miss Hinrichsen has been added to the program since its publication in Friday's Journal. She is field inspector for the State Board of Administration of aims houses and jails. Miss Hinrichsen will tell the women of Morgan county of her work and what she has seen elsewhere.

The plan as outlined for the organization of a federation of women's clubs of Morgan county is excellent and should bring about a better understanding between the various organizations.

PACIFIC HOTEL PROPERTY

IS IN NEW HANDS

Lease and Furnishings Sold By Edward Brennan to Pacific Hotel Company—S. M. Campbell is New Manager.

Edward A. Brennan on Tuesday disposed of his lease and other holdings in the Pacific Hotel to the Pacific Hotel company. S. M. Campbell who has been city salesman for the Jenkinson-Bode company, is at the head of the Pacific Hotel company which is incorporated for $12,000 under the laws of Illinois. F. H. Bode is one of those most largely interested with Mr. Campbell.

Mr. Campbell prior to coming to Jacksonville was a resident of McLeansboro and traveled for a wholesale dry goods house out of St. Louis. He has been successful as a salesman and knows the wants of the knights of the grip and should be a popular landlord. Mr. Campbell will have the general supervision of the hotel.

Edward A. Brennan who retires from the ownership of the Pacific is one of the most popular hotel men the city has ever known. He came here with Harry Richardson about twelve years ago and purchased the Pacific hotel. Afterward he purchased Mr. Richardson's interest and ran the hotel himself until he sold it to Foulk and Snell. Four months ago he came back to Jacksonville and again took charge. He has made the house one of the most popular in Illinois. Recently Mrs. Brennan's health has been bad and she underwent an operation at Our Savior's hospital. It is for the purpose of making a change that will improve her health that causes Mr. Brennan to give up the hotel. He has no definite plans for the future.

Talking with a Journal reporter Tuesday Mr. Campbell said that no changes would be made in the personnel of the employees. All who wished to stay would be kept. George W. Scott who has been in the office of the hotel for nearly three years will have general charge of the office. William Taylor who is night clerk will also remain.

EDWARD B. HARMON DIES AT CHICAGO HOTEL

Life of Well-Known Jacksonville Merchant Came to Sudden Close—Started Sunday to Michigan for Benefit of Health.

A telegram received Tuesday afternoon announced the sudden death of E. B. Harmon at the New Morrison hotel in Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. Harmon left Jacksonville Sunday morning for Chicago, on the way to Omena, Mich., to spend the summer. They had planned the trip for some time, but their going was hastened by a recent attack Mr. Harmon suffered and he greatly felt the need of a change. He was at the store Saturday for a short time and it was very evident to those who met him that his condition was becoming serious, but there was the common hope that the stay in Michigan would result in speedy improvement.

Mr. Harmon had been a resident of Jacksonville for the past seven years. Prior to that time he was a salesman for Carson, Pirie & Co. of Chicago, with territory in Iowa. When he came to Jacksonville it was first as a partner with Louis Franks in the Franks dry goods store and subsequently he purchased Mr. Franks' interest and the well-known store became known as Harmon's.

Nearly two years ago Mr. Harmon's health began to fail and he was under the care of local physicians and a Chicago specialist for an extended period, with the result that he gained a great deal in strength. Practically all of last summer was spent at Omena, and when he returned to Jacksonville last fall he was able once more to meet the demands of his mercantile business. Mr. Harmon leaves his wife, who prior to their marriage was Miss Virginia Waterbury of Marion, Iowa; and one brother, whose home is in Somanank, Ill., which was also the boyhood home of the deceased.

Mr. Harmon was a member of Central Christian church and was a man of such character and ability that he had a high place in the estimation of the people of Jacksonville. His associates in business and the employees of the store of which he was the head held him in the greatest esteem and the news of his sudden going came to them yesterday afternoon as a great shock.

The telegram announcing his death was from Mr. Winchell of the Carson, Pirie & Co. establishment and a long time friend of the deceased. It is presumed that Mr. and Mrs. Crabtree are with Mrs. Harmon, as they were to meet them in Chicago and all expected to go to Omena last night.

A telegram to Lloyd Reid of the Harmon store last night stated that the remains will arrive here tonight at 8:30 o'clock over the C. & A. and that the funeral will be held Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home, 707 West State street.
